CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute shall arise between two or more bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again and resold.

II.—No person to advance less than sixpence ; above ten shillings, one shilling ; above five pounds, half-a-crown, and so on in proportion.

III.—All lots are offered subject to the right to sell at a reserve price, and subject also to the right of the vendor or the auctioneer to bid in respect of such reserve. The auctioneers reserve the right to offer any lots in this Catalogue as one lot.

IV.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of residence (if required), and pay down a deposit of 30 per cent. in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased will be immediately put up again and resold.

V.—The lots to be taken away at the purchaser's expense within two days after the sale ; in default of which Messrs. HODGSON & Co. will not hold themselves responsible for any lots lost or damaged, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

VI.—The books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed ; but if, upon collating, any (except Manuscripts, Tracts in lots or volumes, Magazines, Reviews, and other Periodical Publications, which must be taken with all faults and errors of description) should prove defective, the purchasers will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ten days after the conclusion of the sale.

VII.—Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited ; and all lots uncleared within one week after the conclusion of the sale shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) on such resale shall be made good by the defaulters.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions executed with care and discretion by the Auctioneers.

- 453 DICKENS (C.)—THE POSTHUMOUS PAPERS OF THE PICKWICK CLUB, containing a Faithful Record of the Perambulations, Perils, Travels, Adventures and Sporting Transactions of the Corresponding Members, edited by "Boz," plates by Seymour, Buss, and Phiz, FIRST EDITION, IN THE ORIGINAL NUMBERS, 20 parts in 19, ORIGINAL GREEN WRAPPERS, UNCUT 1836[-7]

¶¶ The following are some of the more important "points" of this interesting copy, which has apparently some unusual features:—All the wrappers are dated 1836 in roman numerals. Parts II, III, X and XV contain the Addresses by the Author, and Parts XVII, XVIII and XIX-XX the Addresses by the Publisher. The Plates in Parts I to XII have no lettering, and those in parts XIII to XX neither lettering or numerical references. The front wrapper of Part I carries the words "With Illustrations by R. W. Buss," and the back wrapper advertises "No. III of the Library of Fiction." Though not of the earliest issue the wrapper of this Part I, has not hitherto been recorded in this state. Plates 2, 3 and 4 appear to have been re-etched, e.g., in the second plate there is only one window to the left of the lamp-post, in the third plate there is no catch to the gate-post, and plate four contains 11 floor-boards. The wrapper of Part II carries the words "With Four Illustrations by Seymour," although only three were issued, and the back wrapper advertises "No. II of the Library of Fiction." The wrapper of Part III is identical, except in the numeral, with that of Part I, the former containing the exceedingly rare and first paid for advertisement of Rowlands Macassar Oil—"The Autobiography of an Oil Bottle," 4 pp. The back wrapper of Part IV advertises the Library of Fiction—this appeared only in copies of the very earliest issue, its place being taken by an advertisement of "The Pictorial Album," and one plate is distinctly signed "N.E.M.O." In the later numbers the original and re-etched plates are mixed, some numbers containing the first issue of one plate and the second issue of the other. The Advertisements, in general, are as in the Harry Widener copy, but in a few cases there are slight differences: Part XIV contains 8 pp. more, and Part XV 4 pp. less than the Widener Copy, and there are other small variations of minor interest. Parts III and V want the Pickwick Advertiser, Part VI wants the "Phrenology made Easy" slip, and the last part does not contain Mechi's Catalogue. The front wrapper of Part VI has a strip cut out of it and one advertisement leaf is defective, whilst the outer margins of a very few plates are slightly defective, but the numbers are quite free from 'repairing' or cleaning.
